The safety briefing will be held via Zoom on Wednesday 25th October 2023 at 7.30 p.m. A representative of each School and Club together with a representative of each School that rows as their own identity within those Clubs must attend a role will be taken. The Safety Officer for every School/Club (if not the representative present) will also need to be identified. The attendee will be responsible for conveying the details from the safety briefing to the competitors and coaches of that School or Club. Any School or Club failing to attend may not be permitted to start.

5 SAFETY

Use of the lake is subject to Maritime NZ Rules and RNZ's Competition Safety Code, which is managed by Environment Canterbury.

NOTE: Non-compliance leads to penalties. Rowing, by its very nature has an element of danger associated with it and it is a responsibility of all participants to ensure that safe practices are to be used at all times. SIR safety equipment is available for the regatta only.

All participants need to be familiar with the safety documents mentioned above.

6 FLAG SIGNALS

Green: Regatta is on.

Yellow: Regatta is temporarily postponed.

Red: Course Closed

Blue: Regatta is abandoned

7 NUMBERS

All boats must carry the correct numbers. Alphanumeric numbers will be provided from the numbers hut close to the launching area. They must be returned immediately after the race. Failure to return the number will result in a charge of $25.00 per number not returned. The number displayed must be that designated in the draw and must read correctly to Judges during racing. No other numbers will be permitted.

8 PROCEEDING TO START

All crews must proceed to the start on the inside of the course unless specifically directed. Crews must not proceed to the start on the course or cross the course when a race is in progress.

Crews must be in the START zone at least five minutes before the advertised start time of their race. The race will take place without reference to absentees. The starter will inform the crews of the time remaining before the start at appropriate intervals.

9 START PROCEDURE

The start procedure is described in Rules 56 to 61 of the NZRA Rules of Racing 2023.

10 NON-START RETURNS

For safety reasons, non-starters must return to the boat park on the course as directed by the Umpire.

11 RACING COLOURS

Every rower, shall wear the registered colours of the club or school represented. This shall consist of at least a singlet and shorts combination or an equivalent one-piece garment.

Crews representing a single club shall wear a uniform of the registered colours of the club. Undergarments may be worn uniformly under the official uniform. In composite crews each rower shall wear the strip of the club represented.

In exceptional cases, the Race Committee may authorise the wearing of an alternative uniform.

12 COXSWAINS

The minimum weight for a coxswain is 55kg. NZRA Rule 22 will be applied, and coaches should make themselves familiar with this, particularly, deadweight and the timing of weigh ins.

NOTE: Coxswains shall wear a New Zealand Safety Standards approved life jacket rated for the weight of the coxswain. Inflatable life jackets are prohibited.

13 PROTESTS

An objection must be made to the race umpire immediately after the finish of the race (NZRA Rule 74). A crew whose objection has been rejected or crews affected by the acceptance of the objection or crews disputing the published results may lodge a protest in writing to the Race Committee not later than one hour after the Umpire has communicated their decision regarding the objection (NZRA Rule 75). A deposit of $50, which shall be refunded if the protest or appeal is allowed, shall accompany the protest.

14 FINALS

'B' finals will be rowed where possible.

15 SUBSTITUTES
